RARE CARL BARKS COMICS FOR SALE!

The following rare Carl Barks reprints of the old duck man's famous Donald Duck and Uncle Scrooge stories have been unearthed in a cache of an average of 50 to 75 copies each, all uncirculated, unread and originally published by Gold Key and Whitman between 1976 and 1982, prior to the Gladstone series. These were printed in much smaller quantities than earlier numbers (that also sell for much more) and are, therefore, more difficult to find on the collector's market today.

Prompt orders will be filled easily and in their entirety while supplies last, but alternate selections are encouraged and will be selected only if first choices are out of stock. Condition cannot be guaranteed mint (though most are) and therefore all sales are final. Immediate refunds will be made when all copies of a particular issue are sold out, provided that payment is made by money order or cashiers check. Personal checks are accepted, but will delay the shipment of the comics. Please do not send cash. Credit card orders are accepted over $100.00.

No minimum is required, but a $5.00 shipping, insurance and cardboard packaging fee must be added to all orders regardless of the quantity of comics ordered. Orders from outside the United States should enclose $10.00 for surface shipping. Please do not call our offices, as our secretaries will not be able to answer specific questions about condition, quantities or contents. Written inquiries will be answered as time and/or availability permit.

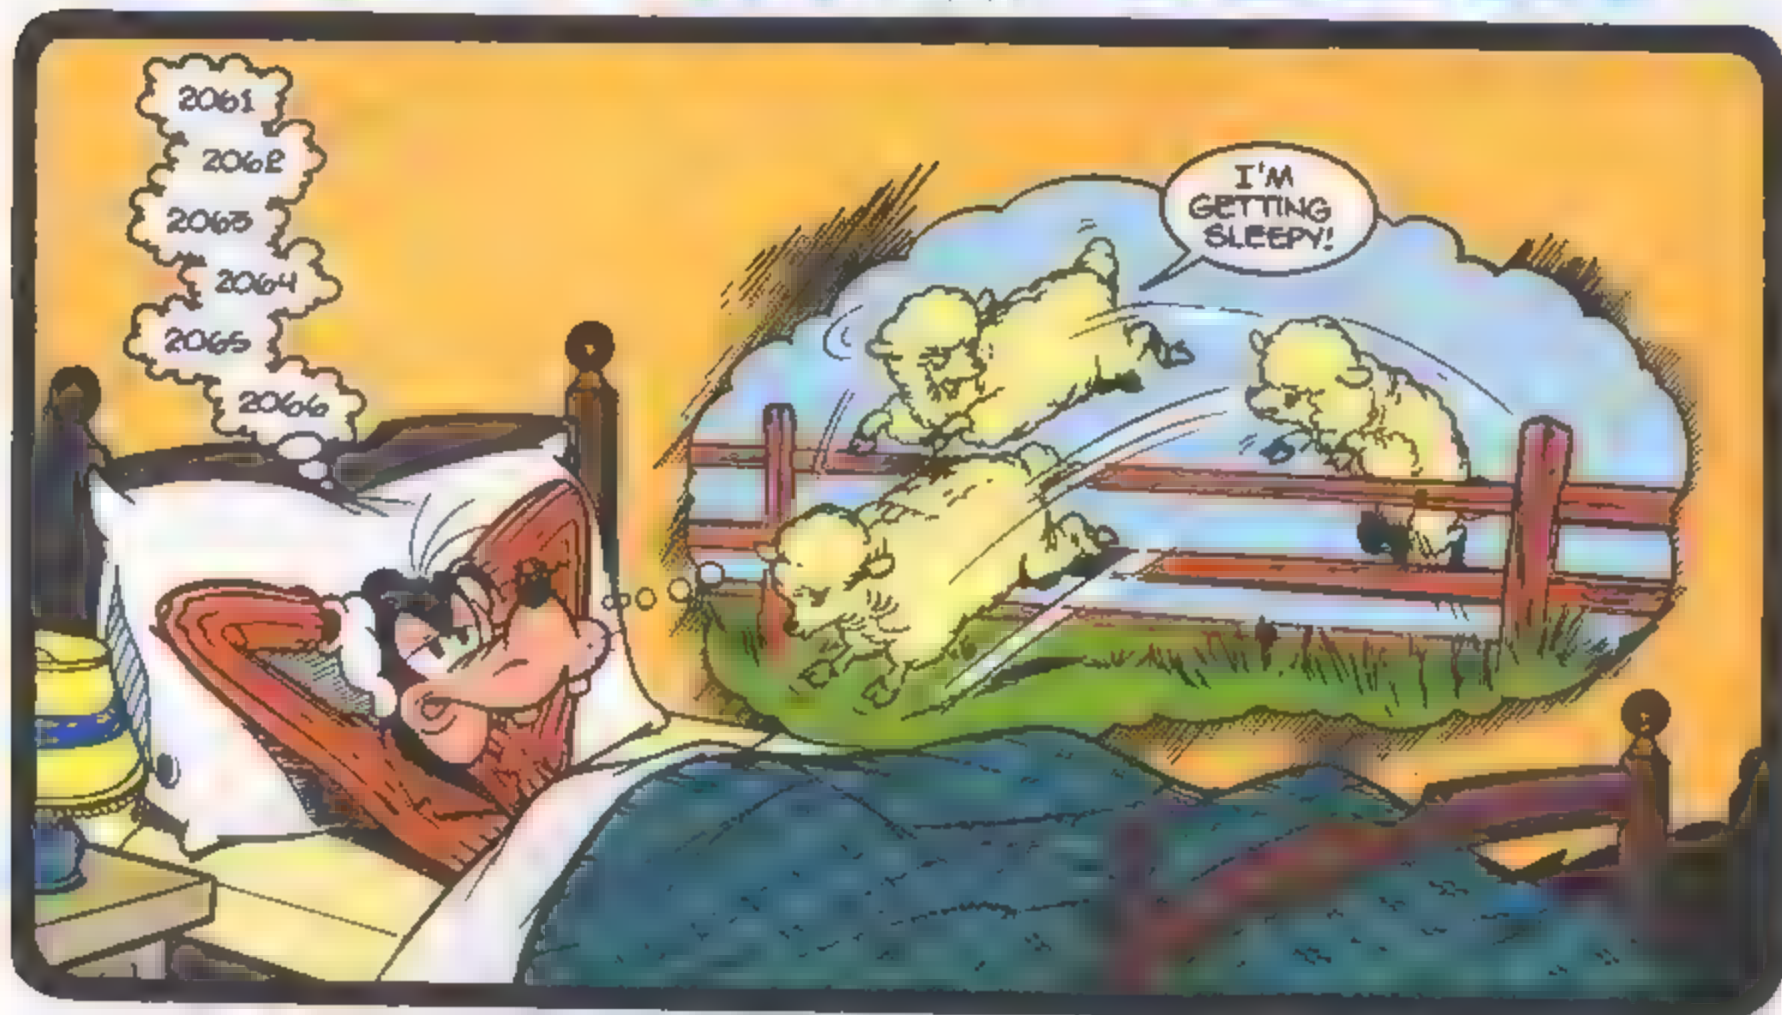

The number immediately following the title is the issue number. The number (or numbers) in parentheses indicates the issue where the reprint originally appeared (the indicated first printings usually sell for two or three times or as much as 15 times the cost of these usually much rarer reprints!).

Make orders payable to Gladstone, Box 2079, Prescott, AZ 86302

Dear Editor,

I have a burning question.

I just bought and read Goofy Adventures #12. How come Arizona Goof doesn't talk funny and say "Hyuck"? I thought that was a Goofy trait. If he's part of the Goofy family, why doesn't he sound like a real Goof? He certainly looks like a Goof!

Please explain this. It keeps me up at night!

Brad Schmidt
Fullerton, CA

I think real hard about this, Brad. I guess it's just because, in spite o' havin' a good family line an' all, Cousin Arizona suffers from some kinda speech impeddymnt.

* * * * *

Dear Editor,

I am writing in to respond to your request poll. I think you should do a story where Goofy is Jack the Zipper. He makes women's clothes, and his zippers never work. Instead of being bad like Jack the Ripper in history, he would be a good guy who ends up with all the women in London going after him because his zippers are so bad. In the end he would solve some mystery or another using one of his zippers that never work, and suddenly he'd be a hero and his weird clothes designs would become fashionable and he'd get rich.

How about it?

Nikki Goldman
Pensacola, FL

Gawrsh! That's a real interestin' idear. I'll pass it on tuh thuh writin' people an' see if anybody wants tuh do it.

* * * * *

Dear Editor,

I never liked Goofy as a character much, but on the advice of a die-hard Disney fan who happens to be a friend of mine, I read Goofy Adventures #11 and what do you know -- one story in it really tickled me. "A Goofy Look At Weather" was really funny. The complete idiocy of some of the gags (like Goofy saying, "If you are traveling, or even going some-place...") actually made me laugh. I dunno...maybe I'm just reverting to my childhood. I'm 28, by the way.

Okay, so maybe I've been judging poor Goofy too harshly.

Anyway, I thought I'd write in and let Goofy know that. He always seems to try so hard, you know? Please forward my letter to him. My friend tells me he works somewhere in your office.

John Fender
Akron, OH

Thank you, John. I'm real happy that yuh like whut I do, an' all muh comical stories. Now yuh gotta go an' get thuh other ten issues of muh book, an' muh videos, an' muh tee shirts an...

* * * * *

Dear Editor Weiss,

I was sorry to read in Goofy Adventures #13 that David Seidman was going to stop editing Goofy. I wondered what would happen with the book -- until I read that you were taking over. Anyone who could make Goofy as funny as you do in Mickey Mouse Adventures is fine by me!

In any case, the conclusion to the "Arizona Goof" story in Goofy #13 was a fine send-off for your predecessor. I loved Mickey's reactions, from his helpless expression when Arizona saved him from the quicksand to his answer when Dr. Kranz mentioned Arizona's stupid cousin and Goofy asked, "Which cousin's that?" (For anyone who didn't read the issue, Mickey replied, "You don't want to know.") And Arizona Goof is a great new character who could be a star in his own right. Do more stories with him!

Sometimes, the story was a little and simplistic and slow. (Really, it didn't need two entire issues, and the quicksand sequence had nothing to do with the plot.) And I didn't understand why the huge underground chamber was so bright when it was lit by just three small torches. Nevertheless, the character bits made the story lots of fun.

Here are some people I'd like Goofy to be in the future: Dracula (hey, since you've got Marv Wolfman on staff, why not have him do a parody of his old Tomb of Dracula stories?) and Sherlock Holmes. Also, bring back James Goof (and Arizona Goof, of course). But don't do more Super Goof; his stories are childish.

Good luck with Goofy Adventures, Mr. Weiss. Long may the Goofy banner wave!

Comes with 3-D
glasses and 3-D audio

How'd you feel if someone plucked you out of your room, strapped a rocket pack on your back and plopped you in the middle of a little machine gun fire, Nazi gangsters, and the F.B.I.? Interested? Then put on your earphones, put on our 3-D glasses, strap yourself in, and pick up your copy of The Rocketeer 3-D Comic—the one with sound that makes you feel like you're really there.
